Dear Sir: I don't know when the news gets around every year that I am going to quit baseball. I will have a better club this year than I ever have had. I will be open in May 3rd at Fox and you had better come here because you can make more money. I will cooperate with you in every way possible.
I attend schedule meeting in Chicago March 7-8 and when I get back we will close up dates. Wishing you a successful season I remain

Very Truly Yours
